FINE PRINT: Days taken off will be at the value of your current department’s regular shift. FEA paid days off will expire after November 30 2015; any days remaining at the end of your employment BEFORE November 30 2015 cannot be used and have no cash value. FEA Paid Days Off cannot be converted into cash at any time. The time off pay will be subject to tax and other regular deductions. Your line manager must approve all time off requests. All winning recipients must sign to terms and conditions before taking FEA paid days off. All decisions relating to Fundraising Excellence Awards and time off are at discretion of the Managing Director.
